

The Daily Courant.

Monday, January 26. 1708.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Jan. 31.

Vienna, Jan. 14.

PRINCE Ragotski and Count Berezeni were the only Persons of the Members of the 4 States of Hungary, who had no Summons sent them to appear at the general Diet appointed to meet at Presbourg: But Affairs are since chang'd for the better; there being greater Likelihood daily of an Accommodation with the Malecontents and Count Palfi Ban of Croatia is at present with Prince Ragotski, to regulate with him the Preliminaries of the Diet: 'Tis also reported as certain that Count Berezeni will in a few Days come to Presbourg to assist at the Diet.

Turin, Jan. 11. About 2000 Men of his Royal Highness's Troops having been sent toward Borgia and Bagnolo to reinforce the Vaudois of Lucerne, the French who had made Excursions to several Places of Piemont retir'd towards Fenouffe.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated Jan. 31.

Valencia, Jan. 5. Yesterday the Duke of Berwick arriv'd here, and was welcom'd with a Salvo of Artillery, and receiv'd and complimented without the Gates by our Magistrates. He immediately gave Order for getting ready out of Hand a Train of 18 Cannon and 6 Mortars: And by Monday next a Body of 8000 Men drawn out of several Garrisons are expected here. 'Tis uncertain whether these Preparations are design'd against Denia or against Alcoy, but in all Likelihood are against the latter, that being the easiest Enterprize. 6 French Regiments of Foot and 2 of Horse, who were quarter'd about this Place, have receiv'd Order to march to Estramadura, to reinforce the Army which King Philip designs shall act early against the Portuguese. The 1st of this Month 7 English Men of War were seen off Cape St. Martin standing down the Streights.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Jan. 28.

Madrid, Jan. 10. The Marshal Duke of Berwick arriv'd the 4th of this Month at Valencia, where he was receiv'd with all Honours and Demonstrations possible of universal Joy. He has begun to give out Orders, that the Troops may be in a Condition to take the Field early, and draw together speedily if there should be Occasion. Some of them are employ'd in Streightening more closely Denia and Alicant. The Marquis de Bay who came hither some Days ago from Estramadura, to give the King an Account of the Condition of the Troops in that Country and of Affairs on the Frontier, set out last Week to return thither, having been very favourably receiv'd by his Majesty, who promis'd him all the Succours he shall have Need of to continue the War against Portugal with Vigour. Don Joseph d'Armendariz Lieutenant General, and the other general Officers that are to serve in that Army, are either gone or on their Departure for Estramadura. They write from Lerida, that they were making an End of repairing the Breches of that Town and Castle: That new Works were added to them; and that a new Fort was begun, to render the Place of more difficult Approach. The Advices from the Kingdom of Valencia import, that many Soldiers of the Garrison of Denia deserted to M. Mahoni, for want of Pay and Provisions: That a Ship coming Barcelona, had been forc'd by bad Weather to anchor at Benisa beyond Denia, and was taken with 300 Portuguese that were on board and were returning to Lisbon. We have likewise Advice from Catalonia, that the Conde d'Orapeza is dead at Barcelona: That Provisions were very scarce there, and that they impatiently expect the Succours from Italy.

Bayone, Jan. 14. The Recruits for the French Troops in Spain, which halted some Days at St. Jean Pied de Port, and were furnish'd with Arms there, march'd Yesterday Morning towards Pampelona, where they will wait for the rest, and proceed with them to the Kingdom of Arragon. 'Tis reported that the Air from the Sea not agreeing with the Queen Dowager of Spain, she will be removed further into France.

From the Amsterdam Cour. and Gaz. dated Jan. 31.

Genoa, Jan. 16. The Squadron of the Allies that sail'd from hence the 1st Instant from Vado, consists of 22 British and 6 Dutch Men of War, 2 Spanish Frigates belonging to King Charles, 1 Dutch Fire-ship, 1 English Bomb-Vessel, having under their Convoy 33 English Transports, 1 Dutch, 7 Genouese, 1 of Leghorne, and 1 Spanish, together with 3 Barks; making in all 78 Sail. There are on board the Transports 7188 Men: viz. 4315 Palatines, 1720 Imperialists, and 1153 Italians; and their Officers Horses. The Count de Cifuentes is embark'd on board this Squadron, with other Officers, and divers Natives of Sardinia, who keep incognito. 'Tis said that 'twas resolv'd in a Council of War held on board the Fleet, to make a Descent on the Island of Sardinia; and then to proceed to Barcelona to land the Troops. The rather because, (as is said here) 6 or 7000 of the Inhabitants of Sardinia have already taken Arms for King Charles III. 'Tis also said that the Count de Cifuentes will be left to command on that Island as Viceroy, if the Enterprize succeed.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated Jan. 31.

Genoa, Jan. 7. They write from Adiazzo in Corsica, that some French Ships from Toulon had put Men Provisions and Ammunition into Cagliari, Bofacitra, Algeri, and other Harbours of Sardinia.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Jan. 28.

Paris, Jan. 28. Letters from San-Remo on the Coast of Genoa of the 3d of this Month, tell us that on the 2d had been seen Sailing with a fair Wind the Fleet bound from Italy with Troops for Catalonia, to the Number of 6300 Men. Since which 'tis advis'd from Toulon the 7th, that they had been seen 20 Leagues out at Sea from the Islands Hieres.

Paris, Jan. 27. The Marshal de Catinat is almost daily in Conference with the King; who last Tuesday nominated some new General Officers of his Army in Germany. They write from Court, that the Marshal de Villars is not march'd from Hunninghen towards Neufchatel, because there is some Appearance of things being made up amicably by the Swiss Cantons to the King's Satisfaction. The Duke de Noailles has by Command from his Majesty, put off his Departure for Rouffillon to the next Week: In the mean time 'tis advis'd from Perpignan, that 4000 Men are arriv'd there from Languedoc, and that all the Forces in Rouffillon are ready to enter upon Action immediately on the Arrival of the Duke de Noailles. Several Squadrons, which are sitting out in our Harbours, are to put to Sea by the 1st of March. The King has renew'd the Permission to export Corn out of this Kingdom, provided it be to Countries whose Sovereigns are not in War against us or King Philip. M. de Chamillard has signified to all the Officers of our Army in Alsace, who are at Court or in this City, that 'tis the King's Pleasure they repair to Strasbourg by the 20th of February. The Marquis de Nesmond is set out for Brest, to put to Sea with some Men of War. 'Tis rumour'd rumour'd the King has said, that the Spanish Plate Fleet cannot be expected in Europe before the End of this Year.

Paris, Jan. 27. The Duke of Orleans and M. de Chamillard are wholly taken up with settling Funds for maintaining the Army in Spain. 'Tis reported for certain, that his Royal Highness demands four Millions for enabling him to execute his Designs in Catalonia, and offers to supply the rest, if the Charge shall amount to a greater Sum, out of his own Purse. The King causes necessary Sums of Money to be advanced to the Officers of the Troops that serve in Spain and Germany, but the Officers of the Forces in Savoy and in the Netherlands are put off to the End of February; whence we judg'd that 'tis design'd our Armies shall act earliest in Spain and on the Rhine. The Letters from Court agree, that the Marshal de Villars continued at Hunninghen the 20th, and that his Project, which was not against Neuchâtel, was by the rainy Weather frustrated. An Express that arriv'd at Court from Roussillon the 25th Instant, brought Advice, that the Fleet of the Allies with between 6 and 7000 Men for Catalonia, pass'd by Collioure the 15th with a fair Wind, and 'tis suppos'd reach'd Barcelona by the 19th.

The most excellent Tablets of a delightful Flavour and Taste, one of which at a time being only chewed or held in the Mouth, rowling it about with the Tongue, wonderfully (without the least offence or hindrance of business) purges the Head and Brain, curing all the Diseases thereof, by evacuating the Rheum or Humours, by moderate Spitting, that cause them, when all inward Medicines, Blisters, Issues, Seacans, &c. are ineffectual. In Rheumatisms, Gouts, Kings-Evil, Leprosy's, Red and Pimply Faces, Itchings, Scabs, &c. they are strangely effectual, sweetning the Blood, creating an Appetite, &c. One of them used as above id for an hour or two, will discharge near a Pint of Rheum, which continued may save the trouble and serve for the same end and better than Salivation in many cases (they being without the least grain of Mercury) and by spitting out at any time the Tablet (which never sticks to the Mouth or Teeth) the Flux immediately ceases, being very harmless and as finell (only flattish) as Peas, leaving the Mouth moist, cool and refresh'd. Are to be had only at Mr. Varenne's, a Bookfeller, at Seneca's Head near Somerset-House in the Strand, at 3 s. 6 d. the Box, with Directions.

The Royal Chymical Wash-Bal: for the Hands and Face, largely experienc'd and daily commended by all that use them; and that for making the Skin so delicately soft and smooth, as not to be parallel'd by either Wash, Powder, Cosmetics, &c. it is indeed a real Beautifier of the Skin, by taking off all Derminities, as Tetter, Ring-worms, Morpew, Sun-burn, Scurf, Pimples, Pits or Redness of the Small-pox, &c. keeping it of a lasting and extreme Whiteness, it soon alters red or rough Hands; and is admirable in Shaving the Head, which not only gives a more exquisite sharpness to the Razor, but so comforts the Brain and Nerves, as to prevent catch-Cold; and is of a grateful and pleasant Scent, without the least Grain of Mercury. Is sold only by Mr. Allnutt, Glover, the corner of Popes-Head-Alley against the Royal Exchange, and at Mrs. Giles's, Millener and Toyshop next Hercules-Pillar-Ally by the Temple, at 1 s. each, with printed Directions at large.
